

SAFETY ISSUE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND COMMITMENT

I understand and recognize that there are certain risks, dangers and perils connected with the use of horses in general as well as in a controlled environment. I hereby acknowledge all associated risks that have been explained to me.

Under these conditions and after inquiry, I realize the completeness of Sher-Lynn Meadows Inc. efforts to maintain safety for all concerned and am wholly satisfied with their efforts. I will faithfully adhere to all safety instructions and recommendations provided me by Sher-Lynn Meadows Inc., whether oral or written while on Sher-Lynn Meadows premises.

I further agree to use and care for any and all Sher-Lynn Meadows animals to the best of my ability.

FARM RULES

- Smoking in designated areas only
- If it belongs to someone else and you want to use it, get permission
- If you make a mess, clean it up
- If you use it, take care of it
- If you borrow it, return it
- If you open it, close it
- If you move it, put it back
- If you turn it on, turn it off
- If you break it, tell someone
- If you don't know how to operate it, leave it alone
- No running, screaming or jumping while working around horses

Let a horse whisper in your ear
and breathe into your heart.
You will never regret it

BOTTOM LINE: TREAT OTHERS AS YOU WOULD LIKE TO BE TREATED

DRESS CODE:

Equestrian facilities can be dirty and a tough environment on clothing. Don't wear anything you don't want to get dirty.

The facilitators and other participants will be respectful of you as an individual, please be respectful of them. Facilitators and other participants will be standing next to you, working alongside you so please dress with not only safety in mind but modesty as well.

Dress in comfortable clothing suitable to work around horses. Comfortable sleeved T-Shirts are ideal, although if they are too baggy might get caught or hung up on something causing injury.

Wear pants appropriate to working around horses.

NO OPEN TOED SHOES
